Gran Cruz Porto certifies that this bottle, number 245, is a unique item, hand produced for _____ and contains a very old Tawny Port, chosen by us to commemorate the 130th anniversary of Gran Cruz.

To make this blend we used wines from the XIX century, produced prior to the era of Phylloxera, together with other rarities which have been selected over the life of the company and which have been aged for more than a century in oak barrels in the Douro and Vila Nova de Gaia.

Time and the careful hand of Man have endowed the wine with a deep copper hue with tones of mahogany. The nose is distinguished by notes of toasted almonds, peach jelly, honey, cinnamon, fenugreek and black pepper, and with time aromas of hazelnuts, dried figs and other dried fruits reveal themselves in perfectly fragrant harmony. The wine fills the mouth completely, is soft and velvety with a marvelously spicy complexity, a vibrant acidity and is fresh and full of life. The finish is extraordinarily long, lingering and totally unforgettable.
